This hands-on class is taught by Laura Patterson, who has been teaching art to children for over 20 years. In addition to being a teacher, Laura herself creates original art for the theatre, and is a costume designer for Actors Theatre and Walden Theatre.

Space in Art Camp classes is limited to 14 children.

About Walden Theatre . . .

Walden Theatre has been changing the lives of young people for 34 years by giving them the opportunity to grow and develop through the comprehensive and professional study of theatre.

In Walden's Conservatory Program, students advance at a personalized pace through a multi-tiered theatre curriculum that begins with Improvisation and progresses through Studio, Apprentice, and Performance levels. Students learn acting techniques and are encouraged to audition for Walden's professional-quality shows that are performed for the theatre-going public.

Walden students have appeared with Actors Theatre, Kentucky Shakespeare Festival, Louisville Orchestra, Stage One, Edinburgh Fringe Festival and at the Kennedy Center, as well as in commercials, hit television programs, and films. Our graduates are recruited by leading post-secondary theater programs.

Along with theatre skills, students also develop sharpened concentration, improved communication skills, and overall self-confidence that will last a lifetime.

All programs, services and activities are provided without regard to race, religion or disability.

*Classes are held at Walden Theatre,
